

Call for Proposals

Proposals are now being accepted for workshops and clinics to be presented at Flute Festival Mid-South, held March 18-19, 2011 at Tennessee State University in Nashville, TN. Diverse presentations that cater to a wide audience are welcomed and appreciated. Popular topics include flute pedagogy, technique, literature, performance, and history.

Presentations may not exceed 50 minutes in length. Proposals may be submitted in either electronic or hard copy format to the addresses below. Please include a description of the presentation, audio/visual equipment needs, accompanist requests, and biographical information for the presenter. Please note that not all A/V and/or accompanist requests may be granted. Presenters agree to appear at Flute Festival Mid-South at their own expense.
