

Mid-South Flute Festival

Call for Proposals

The Mid-South Flute Society is now accepting proposals for workshops and clinics to be presented at the Mid-South Flute Festival, which will be held March 22-23, 2019 at the University of Memphis in Memphis, TN. Proposals that emphasize pedagogy, flute history, and cultural inclusion are of special interest this year, although all proposals will be considered.

Presentations may not exceed 50 minutes in length. Proposals must be submitted via email. Please include a description of the presentation, audio/visual equipment needs, accompanist requests, and biographical information for the presenter. Please note that not all A/V and/or accompanist requests will be granted. Presenters agree to appear at the Mid-South Flute Festival at their own expense, which will include registration and membership fees.

Send proposals no later than December 1, 2018 to:

Elise Blatchford

e.blatchford@memphis.edu